

Native Cholesterol esterase

SPECIFICATION

|                        |                                                                                                                                                         |
|------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Cat.No.         | CHOD-22                                                                                                                                                 |
| Species         | Candida rugosa                                                                                                                                          |
| Product Name    | Native Cholesterol esterase                                                                                                                             |
| Form            | Freeze dried powder                                                                                                                                     |
| Storage         | Dessicate at -20°C                                                                                                                                      |
| Bio-activity    | >35 (25-100 U/mg). Lot specific activity is provided on the vial.                                                                                       |
| Usage           | For research use only, not for diagnostic or therapeutic use.                                                                                           |
| Unit Definition | That amount of enzyme which causes the production of one micromole of cholesterol per minute at 37°C under conditions described in the assay procedure. |